Infinity Institute International, Inc. Receives 2009 Best of Royal Oak Award

WASHINGTON D.C., June 8, 2009 - Infinity Institute International, Inc., a state licensed school of Hypnosis and Holistic Education entering its' 30th year of educational excellence under direction of President, James Duncan, C.Ht., has been selected for the 2009 Best of Royal Oak Award in the Personal Development School category by the U.S. Commerce Association (USCA).

The USCA "Best of Local Business" Award Program recognizes outstanding local businesses throughout the country. Each year, the USCA identifies companies that have achieved exceptional success in their community and business category. These are companies that enhance the positive image of small business through customer service and community outreach.

Various sources of information were analyzed to choose the winners. The 2009 USCA Award Program focused on quality. Winners are determined based on the information gathered internally by the USCA and data provided by third parties.

About U.S. Commerce Association (USCA) - is a Washington D.C. based organization funded by local businesses operating in towns, large and small, across America. The purpose of USCA is to promote local business through public relations and was established to recognize the best of local businesses in their community.
